

Dr.B.R.Ambedkar Open University

1. Self explanatory materials are prepared following the course team approach consisting of academics, practitioners and industry experts.
2. Assignments are designed to assess the performance of students continuously.
3. Check your progress forms an integral part of course material and serves as a self checking device.
4. Multimedia approach is followed to supplement and complement the self-learning process.
5. Follow 360 degree evaluation.
6. Face to face counselling is organised at study centres drawing experienced teachers from the conventional system

